

HI-WAY

When a woman's hair is as long as her life, it's time to cut it. And when a woman's life is as long as her hair, it's time to let it grow.

For the first time, a woman can have her hair as long as her life. And for the first time, a woman can have her life as long as her hair. This is the new Hi-Way. The new Hi-Way is the new way to live. The new Hi-Way is the new way to love. The new Hi-Way is the new way to be.

ST. JOSEPH'S HIGH SCHOOL

1441 N. Michigan, South Bend, Indiana

Keep The Fire Burning

You didn't have to come here. There were many other schools you could have gone to. But you saw a fire for life in this school.

You wished the light of that fire to be a part of your life. You saw that St. Joe would make it a part.

St. Joe showed you that light was the light of Christ burning in the hearts of all of the St. Joe community.

So you chose to come here.

You wanted a "Catholic" education.

You didn't want just an education. You wanted a direction, and you realized that the place to find it was a Catholic school.

At St. Joe you learned About life. About God. About service. About people.

Left: Sue Petersen and Nancy Kloc rejoice over another Indian score.

Below: Buddy Lupresta, Miss Hawley, and Justin Gessier work hard on the food drive as Bishop McManus supervises.

Left: Mr. Meyer gives last minute advice and support to his record breaking cross country team.

Below: The cross country team was among teams honored at the Homecoming pep assembly. Leading the group are Vicki Hesling, Mary Padden and Lorraine Crawford.

Above: At the National Home Society in Indian, Julie Dymek lights her candle, symbolizing the light of learning.

You established a way of life with the hope of the St. Joe community.

You made friends. Lasting friendships bloomed in your years here.

You spent long hours on assignments. To put finishing touches on them. To make them excellent.

You upheld this school's reputation for academic excellence, not because you had to. But you chose to.

You supported the efforts of your athletes, our assemblies, and games, pride shining for all to see.

Those of you who were athletes played with a fiery passion for your sport. Your sportsmanship was an example for others.

You served the poor and underprivileged in your community.

They saw that fire in your eyes. They knew you cared. It showed them that you chose to help. It brightened their lives.

You were happy here.

You chose to be.

Left: The freshmen donned their Roman warrior outfits for their Spirit Day.

"You need what? A sailboat?"

"I do not like thee Lilly Bell. The reason why I cannot tell . . ."

"For Heaven's Sake! You need help with the auction? We'll be there!"

You found it all at St. Joe. Students

They never stopped finding new ways to bring the community closer together through extra-curricular activities.

That's what makes each year distinctive at St. Joe.

That's why you chose to come here

"For Heaven's Sake!!!"
$120,000 net profit was raised in this first annual Marion — St. Joe auction. There were a number of donated items from "Famous Men Bunnies" to a sculpture of "The Lady with the Letter".

The student involvement was tremendous. Some students were assigned to work in the dining area, some even participated in the auction itself. One thing that was common and most exciting was the school spirit. The large turnout of student volunteers showed us what community and love for St. Joe is all about.

But this wasn't a night for just student participation. Our teachers and parents were involved, too. All of our work together made the auction a huge success. Students hope that the unique effort is the beginning of a long tradition for St. Joe.

As Monday morning came, so did spirit week. The senior hall was invaded by natives. A "Hawaiian Punch" was their threat to the Slicers. The next day came, along with the junior doctors. The juniors offered their medical skills to a LaPorte team who would badly need medical attention. On Wednesday the sophomores sailed in with a cargo of spirit. Sailors and pirates in an "Indian Port" were ready to send LaPorte back "seasick". The freshman hall became ancient Greece. Togas were the main attire. The freshmen got their wish when the Indians "fed the Slicers to the lions!"

This night was special. It was special to the football team. It was special to a class. It was special to twelve members of the senior class. It was extra special to the two that would be crowned King and Queen.

The special night was a success for the football team who reigned victorious over LaPorte.

The senior class had reason to celebrate as it was chosen as the recipient of the Spirit Jug.

For Michael Wray, Fran Kaniowski, Greg Petersen, Meredith Healy, Michael Gibbons, Julie Gryp, Joseph Rull, Agnes Nagy, Brian Harvey, Tish O'Connell, Lisa Sweet, Terry Jones, and Leslie Reiner, it was a night to be remembered as they stood before the student body. It was then they understood what an honor had been bestowed on them.

Fall Play

This year's fall play was John Patrick's The Curious Savage, directed by Mrs. Jane Syburg. Three performances were given at St. Mary's O'Laughlin Auditorium on October 29, 30 and 31. Staged in a rest home for the mentally disturbed, the play centered around the eccentric Mrs. Savage, played by Katie Garvey, an elderly widow who wanted to give away her dead husband's riches. Her plans were almost thwarted by her stepchildren, played by Brian Perry, Becky Gaerner and Justin Geissler, who put her in the rest home. There she is befriended by five unusual patients, who were portrayed by Colleen Goddard, T.J. Hengesbach, Kathy Scarbeck, David Martin and Emily Howard. They are in the care of two helpful staff members, enacted by Maria Grabarek and Kathleen Murphy.

The play ended with a dramatic dream-like sequence in which the patients became the people that they had always thought themselves to be.

NHS Swings

This year the NHS sponsored a square dance. It was called by Mr. Joe Miller, who patiently taught the participants all the basic steps of square dancing. The sponsors furnished free refreshments for all who came. By the end of the evening everyone was a little tired but full of the fun that this event provided. Terry Jones, a SJHS senior, called it "The most physically and intellectually stimulating event of the semester. It was so much fun I almost forgot to do my Pre-calculus hand-in and feed my french poodle." All who attended the dance felt that special thanks should go to Mrs. Derwent for all the work she put in to the dance.

Unforgettable!!

The 1982 Christmas dance was not to be forgotten. Couples at Erskine Country Club danced to the sounds of "Now and Then."

The dance floor was always crowded as the dance was a sell-out but everyone enjoyed themselves. Although it got warm at times people cooled off with punch and cookies provided by the committee.

Lines of people danced the "Bunny Hop" across the room. Others enjoyed several "slow" dances. The highlight of the dance, especially for the seniors, was when Tiv Cleveland sang a song for the crowd. As the guest singer Tiv made the dance extra-special.

Thanks for the dance went to the Future Secretaries Association and the Sophomore Class.

Homecoming; Symbol Of Pride

Homecoming at Sr. Joe is a time for school spirit to shine. That is exactly what it did this year.

The school tried something new this year and had the sophomores and seniors join forces to battle the juniors and freshmen. Beginning Thursday night the battle was on as many turned out to decorate the designated sides of the gym. Although many thought you would not have school the next day because of snow, the decorating was a success. The gym hailed the Indian team in their battle against the Culver Eagles.

The Homecoming Court signified the pride of the students for each other. They were presented as representatives of the students. The seniors chosen for Homecoming court were Jon Badur, Tiv Cleveland, Jeff Monhour, Pam Sorukas, Tom Seitz, Therese Derrick, Tom Klimek, Karen Phelps, Roger Thomas, Brigid Heller, Ralph Fell, Aimee Gottlick, Kevin Kusnierek, and Jill Kaps. Karen Phelps and Tom Klimek were chosen to lead the court, as Queen and King.

Walk For The Hungry . . .

... It's good for your heart!! That was the theme for the 1st annual Crop walk in South Bend.

On April 16 many students actively expressed their concern for world hunger by walking in the 7½ mile walk. The Hunger Abolition Corps decided that they would like to be involved in more than the food drive this year; so they got in touch with the people at CROP. CROP is a national organization centered in Elkhart to fight hunger. CROP sent information on the CROP walks that they had sponsored in other cities and H.A.C. presidents, Richard Pilger and James Bullard set to work. They got in touch with different churches and schools in the area, and began publicizing the walk. Here at St. Joe Rev. Tam Wilson, who runs the soup kitchen at the First Methodist Church spoke to students encouraging them to get involved.

The walk drew close to 500 people and raised over $1000. Overall, organizers were happy with the outcome and are planning on another walk for the 1983-84 school year.

Sun Shines On Musical

LITTLE MARY SUNSHINE, by Rick Besayan, was the offering of the Drama and Music Departments in mid-March. Directed by Br. Phillip Smith, the musical comedy was accompanied by Mrs. LuAnn Steiner, choreographed by Mrs. Rita Gerencher. Mrs. Steiner also directed the choral numbers. Students and adults alike enjoyed the humor and the absurdity of the situations that MARY SUNSHINE and her friends, the girls from Eastches-ter Finishing Schaal and the boys of the Forest Rangers, found themselves in. The girls were played by Denise Scarbeck, Kathleen Lyon, Kathleen Murphy, Ann Walsh, Lorraine Crawford, and Cindy Makowski, while the Rangers were played by Jack Blakey, Arthur Lyon, Thomas Keller, David Martin, Ben Aquino, and Pat Harvath. Heidi Heller played Mary to Doug Graczyk's Caprain Big Jim; they hope to settle down "underneath the Colorado sky" after Jim completes his final mission: capturing the renegade Indian, Yellow Feather, played by Kathy Scarbeck. SUNSHINE had, of course, its collection of young lovers in the girls and the rangers, and also its older lovers in Ernestine (Emily Howard) and the Army General (Brian Perry). Mary's maid Nancy (Colleen Gaddard) and Corporal Billy Jester (Will Morgan) also have plans for the future. One of the many memorabile scenes was when Chief Brown Bear (Bill Webb) adapped Billy as his son and honorary member of the Kadota tribe. Not to be forgotten are these who worked behind the scenes. Art Lyon and Jack Blakey designed the sets. Dave Jemieltir wariked as stage manager with Bill

Webb and directed the stage crew. Mrs. Sally Hendricks and Mr. Jack Kapsa assisted with castumes and backdrop construction. In charge of props was Frank Lenox. Lighting was handled by Tim Withey. The play provided a pleasant time for all, both in front and behind the scenes.

Getting To Know You

A sure sign that the school year is nearly over is the annual Frosh In-Frosh Out dance. Sponsored by the Freshman class, the dance is held in the Sr. Joe gym. All eighth graders who have registered for freshman year are invited. This year, a large majority of the incoming students took advantage of the opportunity to meet their future classmates and next year's sophomores in an informal setting.

The gym was transformed very simply with a rotating mirrored ball and music was provided by a local disc jockey.

A primary purpose of the dance is to help build class unity within the incoming class. Because Sr. Joe draws students from well over a dozen elementary and junior high schools, this is an important consideration. Through the eighth grade open house in December, the dance and frosh orientation in August, students are encouraged to make new friends and get to know some of their classmates before the formal opening of school. Contact with current freshmen helps new frosh to know at least a few people who can help them find their way around during those first few confusing days.

Overnight Gives A Chance

The members of the Senior Class sponsored an "overnighter" on Saturday, April 16 and Sunday morning April 17. The 40 students and 6 faculty members that attended began arriving on Saturday night about 10:30. The evening started with a mass in the chapel, celebrated by Fr. Rybicki. At the conclusion of the mass, students made their way to the Little Theatre for a performance by the Senior Band. The concert ended about 1 a.m. and students were then free to use the gym to play basketball and volleyball. Most of the students enjoyed this time. One senior said, "It gave us the chance to talk with fellow classmates, as well as have a lot of fun.

Midway through the night, somewhere near 4 a.m., a variety of team contests were played as a part of a "senior olympics." After the olympics students enjoyed two video taped movies, "Blazing Saddles" and "Young Frankenstein" provided the laughs until the 7 a.m. breakfast.

Students who attended felt it was a well organized activity and that it was fun for everyone who attended. In the words of one student, "Those who couldn't make it missed out on a really good time."

One Special Night

The 1982-83 Junior-Senior Prom was held on Saturday May 8 at the Concourse of the Athletic and Convocation Center at Notre Dame. The theme was "Love Me Tomorrow" and the music was supplied by the band "Good Time Company" and supplemented by good music on tape brought by the band and played on their breaks. The Prom Committee decorated the hall with white lights, yellow flowers, and a gazebo for the portrait background. All who attended wore their best in evening wear, including Fr. Rybicki who showed up in a black tux — we appreciated his enthusiastic approach to chaperoning, but all he ever wears is black. The highlight of the evening was when Eddie Bradley and Pete Walters sang "Pretty Baby" for the benefit and delight of the audience and also upstaging the band.

A Tuesday evening in May saw several hundred St. Joe students, faculty and parents gathered in the gym to recognize those students who had achieved academic excellence.

Brian Perry, salutatorian of the class of '83, spoke of the need not only to grow in knowledge but also in awareness of self, others and God. He stressed that the role of education at St. Joe is the development of heart and soul as well as mind and body.

While Mr. Wojrowicz read each student's name and the honors earned, Mr. Rousey presented awards and the congratulations of the faculty and administration. Honor awards for maintaining a grade point of 3.4 for three quarters were given to 151 students, while High Honor awards went to 56 for grade point averages of 3.75 or above.

Corthy Agostino and Brian Berndt were named Hoosier Scholars, and Katie Garvey received the Principal's Award. In addition, National Merit finalists, semi-finalists, and merit commendations were named.

Moving On . . .

"We've traveled a long, long, time together,
And there have been a lot of good things on the way.
But now, it's almost time for leavin',
And the things I feel inside are very hard to say.
But it's time for moving on, my friend,
Hold back all the tears and sorrow.
It fin'ly is time to go our sep'rate ways
And I want to wish you well, my friend,
As we search for new tomorrows
Go as you must, but please,
Don't forget the yesterdays.
Remember the dreams we dreamed together,
All of the joys we shared in getting to today.
Now just one time before you leave me,
Reach out and take my hand and help me walk away.
For it's time for moving on
Don't forget the yesterdays"

"When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you're trudging
seems all uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down
a bit —
Rest if you must, but DON'T
YOU QUIT.

Life is strange with its twists and turns,
As every one of us sometimes learns,
And many a fellow turns about,
When he might have won had he stuck it out.
Don't give up though the pace
seems slow —
You may succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than it seems, to a faint and faltering man;
Often the struggler had given up when he might have captured the victor's cup;

And he learned too late when
the night came down,
How close he was to the golden crown.

SUCCESS is failure turned inside out —

The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems

So stick to the fight when you're the hardest hit, —
It's when things seem worst that you MUSTN'T QUIT."

You didn't have to go through those grueling practices. Doing the same drills for three hours straight; getting up at five to make the five-thirty practice. But you, the athletes of St. Joseph's H.S. put out the extra effort to make the difference. You didn't quit. You were proud to be an INDIAN.

The 1982 Football team was unpredictable, winning the first three games impressively, then going into a month long slump which saw their state record 34 game regular season winning streak broken at Benton Harbor, 6-2. However, the young squad matured quickly and closed on an upbeat note, beating Fort Wayne South and Michigan City Rogers.

Outstanding members of the team were honored at the

The young football team showed its character in rebounding at the end of the year, and the number of underclassmen bodes well for next year. Freshmen Football

The freshman football team finished their season with a disappointing 3-6 record. After a rough 6-0 loss to Mishawaka, the freshman were beaten by arch rival Marian 21-0. The highlight of the season came with a last minute 14-12 come from behind victory against M.C. Rogers. Other victories included a 19-0 victory over Clay, and a 13-6 defeat of LaSalle. This years squad learned some rough lessons on the gridiron but should improve with hard work, discipline, and enthusiasm.

Take It To The Top

The 1982 Varsity Volleyball squad completed its finest season in ten years by remaining undefeated throughout the entire regular season of play. Under the leadership of tri-captains Leslie Reiner, Pat Baurers, and Marge Kominski, the Indians participated in several tournaments of which they captured the title at the Oregon Davis Invitational. Among the list of St. Joe's victims were such rivals as Mishawaka, Marion, and Adams. However, their season was brought to a close surrendering the sectional title to Adams.

The experienced B-team had a very successful season also. Sandy Zack and Mary Fredlake led the team to victory ending their season proudly with a 17-2 record.

The freshman had a new coach this year, Laura Wiercioch. She depended on players like Mimi Troesler and Mary Konopa for support throughout the season.

All three teams were true to their unspoken theme, Take It To The Top.

John Raven, senior co-captain of the boys cross country team, summed up the 1982 season best: "Things are different this year, that's for sure!" was his comment after the team defeated Marian 24-33. Two things made this season different. One was the fact that Marian had been beaten, a rare occurrence in itself, and the second difference was the team's record. By the Marian meet in 1981 the team had been well on its way to a dismal 3-8 record. However, by the Marian meet 1982, the team was 10-4 and finished with a sparkling 11:5 record, the best in S.J.C.C. history. Led by co-captains Ed Reilly and John Raven, who set the school record as he placed 8th in the regional, runners Kevin Olson, Chris Newburne, Pat O'Malley and the rest of the team were able to sneak up on many opponents this year.

This season was successful for the girls team as well. Training started early with conditioning in July, but the hours of work paid off in an undefeated season (6-0), a city championship, and a trip to the regional meet. This was quite an accomplishment considering this was the first year for all ten girls who ran. The year started off with a victory over a stunned Mishawaka team. According to Coach Mark Meyers the team was a very spirited team "I was very proud of the girls' accomplishments but, moreover, of their character, spirit, and dedication. Coaching these girls was a great reward." The team finished fifth at regionals. And Jill Egenhoefer qualified for state with ninth in regionals.

The formidable Sr. Joe Tennis Team had made itself a tennis power in South Bend. The finished with a brilliant 13-5 record. This young team was led by co-captains Greg Petersen and Dan McKeown and senior Adam Taylor. Freshman sensation Neil Delaney strengthened the line-up along with sophomores Scott Ummel, Chris Nespo, Steve Cari, and John Hintz. The highlight of the season came when Sr. Joe won the LaPorte Invitational. Their triumphs included victories over Marian 3-2 and LaPorte 5-0. Other victories over Marian came in season and sectional play. Arch-rival Clay also fell to the Indians in a close 3-2 victory. Chris Nespo won the MVP award and the Kiwanis award went to Greg Petersen. With such a young team under his direction, first year coach Mr. Tim Goff will have many fine seasons to come.

First year coach, Mike Oralski, has a lot to be proud of this year. The consensus on the season was that it was very good. Coach Oralski felt there could have been some games won that had gone down to the wire but overall he was pleased with the season.

When asked what he thought were the best games of the season he said the victories over Adams and Plymouth in the holiday tournament were key games in getting the teams confidence up. He also felt that although the games against Marian and Elkhart Memorial counted as losses, they were well played and could have gone either way.

The leading scorers were Mike Gibbons with an average of 18.6 points per game and Brian Harvey with an average of 8.2 points per game. Steve Nicorski rivaled senior Brian Harvey on rebounds with a 5.7 average. And Mike Way led the team in assists. According to Oralski, the team should come back next year with a strong, aggressive defense and offense.

The B-team was led by Mike Megyse and Mark Sweet and Scott Ward. The highlights of the season included wins over Riley, Adams, Arch-rival Marian (twice), and Washington (twice).

The 1982-83 edition of the varsity girls basketball team's talent was not often reflected in the final score. Though the varsity's record was only 1-17, the games were often close and always hard fought. The team, coached by Larry Shead, was led by Most Valuable Player Karen Phelps, who led the team in steals. Phelps was also a captain along with fellow senior Angie VanOver-berghe. VanOverberghe was the recipient of the Kiwanis and Mental Attitude awards. Freshmen sensation Melissa Stanley led the team in field goal %, free throw %, and rebounds, thus making her the Most Improved Player. Though the team will lose 2 players to graduation, they can look forward to having most of the team, including 6 juniors, return.

The B-team, coached by Pat

O'Neill, fared better than the varsity, bringing home a 14-4 record along with the City Championship trophy. The talent of the B-team predicts good days ahead for girls basketball at St. Joe.

The Freshmen team, also coached by Mr. Shead, used this year as a building season and greatly improved despite their 0-12 record

The 1982-83 Indian Hockey Team set yet another precedent. It is the fastest growing team affiliated with St. Joe even though it is still a club sport. This year a third team was added to the Hockey program. Now there is a Varsity Traveling team which played teams from Indiana, Illinois, and Michigan, a Junior Varsity squad which represented the Indians in the South Bend High School League, and also a B-Team which had a complete schedule of its own. This new system enabled more students to participate and get ice time

The great task of coaching under his new system was again undertaken by Mr. Dave Barner and Mr. Mike Klasinski. The Varsity was led by captains Kevin Eastman, Mike McNeill, and Mickey Baird while the JV captains were Damian Dieter, Dave Harvath and Conar O'Malley. The Varsity finished with a 27-2-1 record. They also went down to the state tournament where they again fell victim to a rough Culver team in the championship game. Eastman was placed on the second team and Sophomore John McCormick received Honorable Mention. McNeill was also named the tournament's Most Valuable Player and received a commendation in SPORTS ILLUSTRATED. McNeill was the team's MVP while Mike Trubac was named Most Improved. On the JV team Mike Brach was the MVP and John Bellina was Most Improved. With much of the team returning and young players gaining experience, the Indian Hockey Team definitely has a bright future.

They were led by Kazmierczak (20-2), Loris Zappia (20-4), Andy Hoffman (21-5), and Mark Malnar (16-11). Highlights of the season included close victories over Marian and Northridge, with the winner not being decided until the last four wrestlers were done. Another high point was a triple-duel victory at Eau Claire. The wrestlers had a successful post-season as well with Loris Zappia, a three time sectional champion, Andy Hoffman, and Mark Malnar winning Sectional titles. Out of 17 team members, 6 advanced to the regionals, where Sr. Joe placed 6th. KJ Kazmierczak was the Most Valuable Player; Loris Zappia won the Most Dedicated award. Kazmierczak and Zappia tied for the most pins, 11, and Kazmierczak tallied the most match points by getting 140. Mark Malnar had the most team points with 86 and Brian Murray led the team with 23 rakedowns. The D-team finished with a 4-7 record while the freshman suffered through a 1-4 debut season. With the majority of the team returning, Sr. Joe can look forward to more successful seasons in the future.

The Indian Baseball team excelled this year, turning in a 19-6 record on their way to a #15 state ranking. Coached by Chip O'Neil and assisted by Pat O'Neil and Steve Austin, the team slid past Washington in a doubleheader and beat area power Adams. The highlight of the season was winning the Adams Tournament. This year the team's schedule included teams from Michigan, including Lake Shore and Dowagiac, who the Indians beat. The team was sparked by the leadership of senior co-captains Tom Klimmek and Mike Gibbons. John Broden, also a senior, was named Indian Hustler and Most Valuable Player. Kevin Eastman led the team with a .378 batting average.

Cochs Pat O'Neil's D-Team-Fresh squad finished 16-11. They were led by co-captains Todd Carpenter and Tom Weinberg.

City Champs!

The Indian Softball team had an outstanding season this year, compiling a 17-4 record on their way to the city championship. The team was led by team captains Angie VanOverbergh and Carolyn Kanapa and Infield captain Cheryl Kazmierczak and Outfield captain Sue Nelson. The Highlights of the season included two hard-fought battles versus Adams, one of which decided the city title. Carolyn Kanapa won the Most Valuable Player honors while Julie DeMaegd and Sue Nelson shared the Most Improved Player award. Senior Angie VanOverbergh received the Mental Attitude award. Infield and Outfield awards went to Carolyn Kanapa and Carrie Seitz, respectively. Freshman sensation Seitz also received the Home Run award for having six throughout the season. The team, coached by Miss Diane Fox, should have no problem having a repeat performance next year.

Although they got off to a slow start this year the golf team is to be commended on a fine end. They were led by senior Paul Szrom who was backed up by returning letter winners

Chris Klevo and Kevin Drajer.

Joining the team this year were Tim Healy and Mike Diek, among others. They will be returning next year to support the team.

Paul Szrom received the Most Valuable Player Award again this year. The team will be strong again next year despite the loss of this player. Besides Szrom it is only losing one other player, John Honey.

It's true! The third time is a charm — or least for the Sr. Joe Soccer Team. In their third season of varsity competition, the Indians took it all, including the first-ever Northern Indiana State Cup Tournament.

The Indians finished the year with an 18-11 record, which included city tournament victories over Elkhart Central, S.B. Washington and cross-town rival, Adams. The City Tournament win over Adams placed Sr. Joe in the Northern Indiana Cup Tournament against diocesan rival, Bishop Leurs of Fort Wayne. The Indians defeated the Knights 2-0. The scene was set for the championship game against East Chicago Washington, who boasted a 34-game winning streak. In an exciting, heart-stopping game, the Indians came away a 2-1 winner.

Junior Bruce McCourt, the school's all time leading scorer, was voted the Most Valuable Offensive player in both tournaments. Juniors T.J. Hengesbach and sophomore Allen Marrin were chosen as the Most Valuable Defensive players in the South Bend and State Cup tournaments respectively.

The 1983 team loses only two seniors — Luis Manra and Pablo Libra. With most of the team returning, the Indians have the potential for many successful seasons and to bring home more trophies and honors in this ever-more-popular sport.

MICKEY The Varsity Cheerleading performed a routine to the popular song Mickey at the Homecoming pep rally.

Since May, 1982, the Cheerleaders practiced twice weekly to prepare for the 1982-83 season. They attended cheerleading camp at Notre Dame for a week during the summer. They learned many new cheers and skirts which they performed during the pep assemblies. Spirit buttons were sold by the Cheerleaders to help spread the Indian spirit. Hopefully, the enthusiasm of the Cheerleaders will continue to spread throughout the school. And soon the spirit of the Indian fans will be Dyn-o-mire!

It was a year of firsts for the Varsity Boys' Track Team, coached by Mr. Mark Meyer and assisted by Mr. Mark Johnson and volunteers Bruce Konstant and Tom Bellino. 1983 marked the first winning season since 1970 for the Indians as they compiled a 5-3 record. The team scored a record number of points at the South Bend Classic and was awarded 3 sets of medals at the Goshen Relays where the team placed eighth in a field of 24 teams.

Captained by seniors Kevin Kusnierek and Ed Reilly, the team's leading runners were John Raven, Kusnierek, Jan Badur, Reilly, and John Bhisitkul. Top underclassmen were juniors Paul Applegate, Ed Mack and Lloyd Kerchum, and sophomores Craig Warcke, Guy Forrest, and John Casey. The 400 meter relay team of Kusnierek, Jeff Jump, Fred Osbourne, and Forrest set a school record with a time of 44.9 seconds.

The most exciting point of the season was John Raven's trip to the state finals in the 800 meter race. He placed first in sectionals, fourth in Regionals and seventh at the state meet. In accomplishing this feat, Raven set a school record of 1:56.9. The girls team led by seniors Ann Marie Kulesa and Teresa Derrick set records in the long jump, 800 relay, and the 1600 relay. Freshman Pam Matuszak set a school record in the mile run.

Although the girls' Tennis Team lost eight varsity players to graduation, they managed to come through with a winning season, finishing with 10 wins and 6 losses in the regular season, and 12-6 overall.

Spurheaded by co-captains Brigid and Megan Heller, the team took second place in the Culver Tourney, beating Marion, Indiana and losing to Culver. The team took third in the Sr. Joe tourney, with doubles team Elena Southwick and Brigid Heller placing first, and Megan Heller second in singles. Third places in singles went to Joey Buszkiewicz and Kim Witrucki, and in Doubles to Patti Quinn and Sandy Hickey.

The team took Penn 3-2 in the first round of the sectionals, but lost to Marian 4-1 in the semi-final round.

B-Team did well, finishing with a 14-2 record.

Most Improved was Kim Witrucki, and Most Valuable was Megan Heller. Brigid Heller took both the Best Attitude and the Kiwanis awards.

With only two seniors leaving, Miss Jane Goldsberry, coach, looks to a "very good" season next year.

ACADEMICS

The standard ore set but they have to be kept up. You kept them up. You upheld this schools reputation for academic excellence. You spent the extra hours trying to understand. Retyping the papers, and redoing the experiments. You spent your extra time at competitions and working on projects for judging. You received well earned awards for your work. You maintained a standard of hard work and perseverance. If you didn't get it the first time you kept trying.

You found a balance. You found time outside school to help others. To play sports.

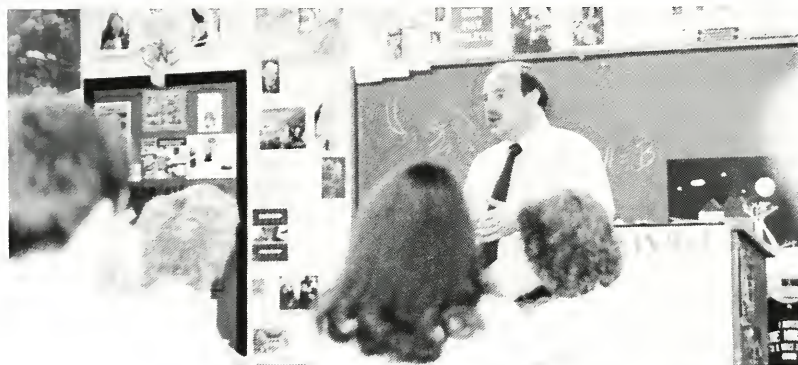

You let your light shine for all the world to see. The brightness of your life within, the peace that set you free."

You made the halls of St. Joseph's High School a place of life. You were proud to be here.

You chose to be.

The St. Joe English Department, chaired by Mrs. Joane Syburg, is our largest department. Every student is required to take four years of English, to be chosen from course offerings ranging from reading lab, taught by Mrs. Brunner, to honors level British literature, taught by Dr. Philip Smith. In addition, Mr. Ken Becknell of the South Bend Community School Corporation teaches learning strategies to a small group of students needing such assistance.

One of the highlights of the year was the presentation of Murder in the Cathedral and A Man for All Seasons, by Dr. Phil's honors class. Cut to 50 minutes and given in the Little Theater, the plays were enjoyed by English and theology classes.

The English Department serves as a "lab" for students at the University of Notre Dame and St. Mary's College who are taking the teacher preparation program. These future teachers work closely with a member of the department and receive a first-hand look at and receive a first-hand look at teaching as a career. This year, in addition, Mr. Joe Ross, a student at Mareau Seminary and an English teacher, "kept in his hand" by team-teaching with Mrs. Haas in composition class.

Media, developed and taught by Mr. Tom Gerencer, is sought eagerly by seniors who do not want to leave St. Joe without the "Gerencer experience."

The highlight of the year for the art department was the annual Fine Arts Festival. In it students displayed their best drawings, paintings, and ceramic pieces. Again this year the department sent several entries to the area wide contest where the students' works are displayed at L.S. Ayres at University Park Mall. Some students sending pieces to the competition were Phil DeLeu, Tony Tompos, Allison Crumley, Tim Fitzpatrick, and Michael Berndt. Probably the most exciting event for the Art Department in 1982-83 was the 50% increase in staff in the form of Miss Jackie Heater, bringing the number of faculty members to three. Much to the delight of the ceramics students, a new kiln was purchased to accomodate more pieces per firing.

Mathematics

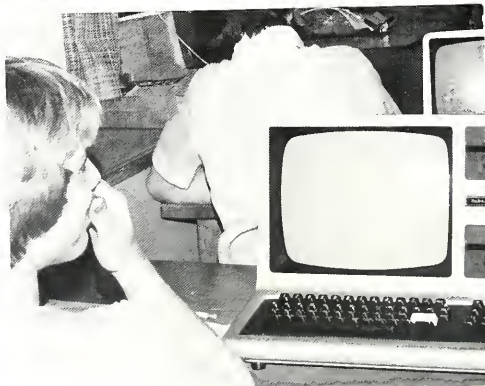

Headed by chairman Mr. John Wojnowitz, the Mathematics department was busy in the 1982-83 school year. Joining the math faculty this year was Miss Laura Wierciach who taught Geometry and Algebra 2 and Trigonometry. Throughout the year the department gave the Indiana Mathematics League Contests which the more advanced math classes were required to take. Not only did the students participate in the school contests but also in city and area-wide contests (such as: Sr. Mary's and IUSD). In all of these Sr. Joseph's students placed very highly; indicative of the manner in which they've been taught.

Even Math teachers have to get away sometimes as shown by Mrs. Derwent's disappearing to Rame in the middle of the winter. Mrs. Miano was a bit more creative as she tried to bring her own tropical paradise to room 205 complete with lawn chair and fan.

Another important addition to the math department was the set of computers and computer courses designed to help students prepare for the up and coming "computer age."

Middle: Luis Manro and Renee Joubert take time out to watch the world go by.

St. Joe's Social Studies Department offers a wide variety of both required and elective courses to meet the needs and the interests of its students.

The American Studies program, team — taught by Sr. Mary Ann Pajkowski and Mrs. Susan Lightcap of the English department, allows juniors to meet the American literature and U.S. history requirements through a curriculum which shows the relationships that exist between events and cultural developments which occur at a given time and place. With the U.S. history honors classes, American studies students had the opportunity to visit Connor Prairie, where they were able to observe life in Indiana during the early days of settlement.

A course taught by Mr. Crake and Mrs. Boulac from the University of Notre Dame Law School, Practical Law allowed a small group of students an experience in the workings of the American legal system. A mock trial, in which students played the principal roles, culminated the program. Details of the case were taken from an actual situation, and students from other courses served as the jury. Participants felt the trial gave them a better understanding of how our court system works.

Right: A witness is cross examined as the mock trial progresses.

Social Studies

It takes a special breed of teacher to stay on the third floor all year long. It is obvious that the fumes from the labs have taken their toll on those brilliant science faculty brains as some fairly strange occurrences take place in the science hall. These happenings took the form of Mr. Miano on a sit-and-spin, Mr. Goff's clockless room looking more like a greenhouse than a classroom, and Mrs. Streiner priding herself on her out of season Halloween experiment. It was not all fun and games on the third floor as Jane Silva and Mark Maher, under the directions of Mr. Conners, won trips to NASA for their experiments for the Space Shuttle. Mrs. Cory and her "dorling" students spent the year making the school grounds look "just peachy".

Top: Mr. Miano looks all business while proctoring one of his killer Physics tests. Middle: Science Department faculty members obviously never saw Charlotte's Web.

Science

Theology

Three new faculty members joined the Theology Department during the 1982-83 year. Mrs. Christine Brooks-Leonard, Mrs. Nancy Fehlner and Miss Mary Hawley took up teaching duties, bringing to eleven the number of Theology teachers. Students are required to take 8 semesters of Theology during their years at St. Joseph's. Freshmen are given a glimpse of the Old Testament, complete with the Battle of Jerusalem, and a course in Catholic Life, which also includes the Reverence for Life and Family section. Sophomores go back into the history of the Church, starting with the New Testament. At the Junior/Senior level, courses are primarily elective, with students choosing from such areas of study as Morality, Justice and Peace, Church and Sacraments, Christian Churches, Marriage and Scripture. Activities of the 1982-83 year included approximately 150 students viewing the movie "Ghond" and members of the Justice and Peace courses simulating the effects of a nuclear disaster.

Students in the Sacraments course participated in a baptismal ceremony, while those in the marriage course prepared budgets and other data which will be helpful to them in married life. The Liturgical Arts students toured and evaluated several area church buildings, as well as evaluating the liturgical life at St. Joe.

Then the Lord sent his spirit upon the apostles. At once they went out into the streets and began speaking to the people. The people were from many different countries yet each understood in his own language. They listened. Amazed.

One man exclaimed, "I am from Germany, my companion from France, and that man over there, he is from Spain. How can it be that these Americans are speaking in our native tongues?"

How can it be? It can be because of months of hard work. All year long students at St. Joe endeavor to master a foreign language.

If one entered a first year language course in the first or second week of school, he might think he was entering a kindergarten class. He would find students reciting their ABC's and 123's in unison, learning words for common objects. Struggling to understand. A language.

If he went on to the third or fourth year students he would find them examining art, music, literature and history. Struggling to understand. A culture. A people.

Then the Lord said to his apostles, "I send my spirit upon you that you might go and reach the people of all lands to understand. To love.

Under the direction of Mr. Larry Sheod, the Sr. Joe business department provides courses to students who plan to enter the work force as well as to those who are college bound.

Serving both groups are the typing courses, which provide basic typing skills for personal use as well as more advanced skills for business applications. Mr. Sheod also foresees the addition of word-processing courses in the department as soon as processors become available at Sr. Joe.

A course in shorthand, taught by Sr. Marie Carra Higgins, was reintroduced this year in response to student demand, and will be offered in the future as needed.

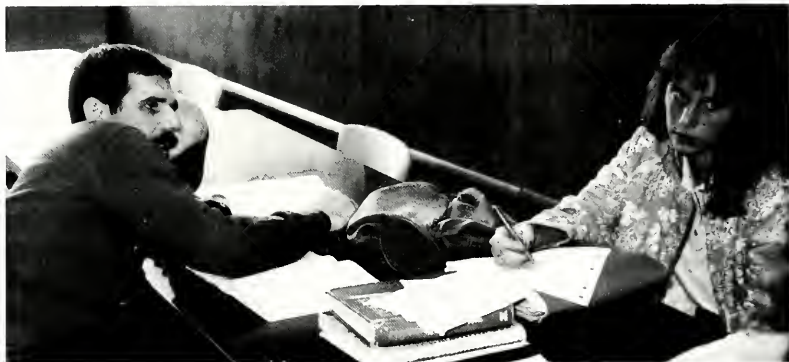

Other courses in the department, such as Mr. Pat Weil's business economics course, prepare students for the reality of business money management and investment, while Miss Dena Grams' course provides experience in applying the principles of accounting to the business world.

Mr. Sheod's class in business law covers a wide variety of topics ranging from partnership agreements to dealing with local law enforcement agencies.

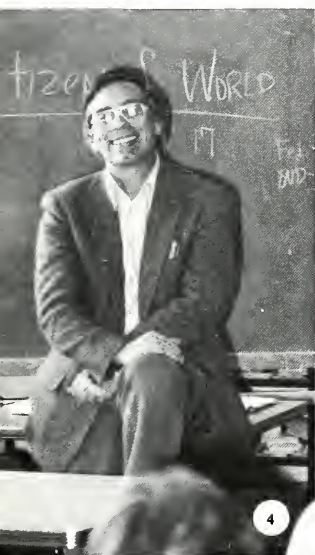

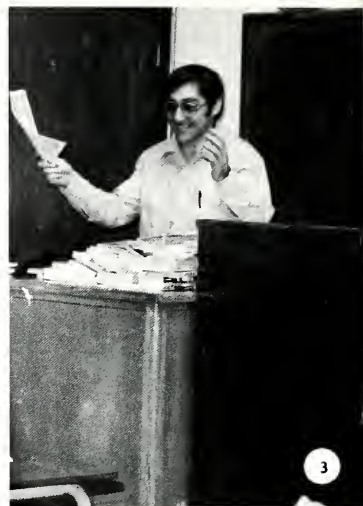

This brings representatives of city, county and state police to a panel discussion with students. The course in family management leads the class through planning for the establishment of a new family unit and culminates in a mock wedding ceremony at the end of the unit.

ORGANIZATIONS

You saved the poor and underprivileged in your community. They saw that fire in your eyes. They knew you cared. It showed you chose to help the children in their lives.

You found that studying isn't all there is to school. Some of you spent your free time helping others. Others of you broadened your horizons through cultural experience. You learned new skills through technical clubs.

You explored new fields through your career centered organizations. You helped keep the school running by the planning of school functions. You made assemblies and school mingles special events.

You were the ones who organized a few important activities and an activity special. Your organizations helped to make new friends and new memories. You kept the fire burning.

Drama & Art Work Together

The Art and Drama Clubs worked hand in hand this year. The Art club, with the help of Mr. Kapsa, Mrs. Hendricks, and Mrs. Hearer, made props and sets for the Drama Club's Nursing home and Gradeschool shows. The Drama Club gave 2 major productions and 2 minor ones including an Erma Bombeck show and a review. It also presented an acting workshop and a spoof on fairy tales for parents and the open house. The Art Club sponsored a trip to Chicago and the Art Institute and also held their annual Christmas ornament sale to raise money for their activities. Both Mrs. Syburg and Mrs. Hendricks have great plans for their clubs next year which gives evidence to the fact that next year should be even better than this year.

Below: Drama Club: 1st row (seated) K. Byron, J. Egenhoefer, E. Higging, E. Howard, S. Shapero, K. Murphy, K. Macey, B. Goerner, A. Dabrowski, N. Fink, A. Gauler, M. Vogl, M. Above Middle: T.J. Hengesbach, Katie Garvey, Kathy Scarbeck, David Mann and Colleen Goddard put the skills they have learned in Drama Club to use in the school play. Above: Emily Howard expresses her dramatic talents in "Little Mary Sunshine."

Under the direction of Mrs. Par Hoas, the Hi-Lite, Sr. Joe's newspaper, enjoyed a year capped by recognition of the Professional Journalism Association with a first place award for overall excellence. Also receiving awards from the Association were Cathy Agostino and Brian Perry for individual articles and Mike Fitzpatrick for photography.

Sophomores Mary Riordan and Mary Kay Szarzynski served as Sr. Joe student editors for the South Bend Tribune's "Next Generation" page. The Tribune's award for Most Valuable Staffer went to co-editor Cathy Agostino. Brian Mast received the advisor's photography award.

During the year, some changes were seen. The paper produced several wight page issues, and in the final edition for the year incorporated a photoessay covering the past four years.

The sound of music, that is what makes up the Sr. Joe band. Directed by Daniel Balog, the band which consists of eighty talented musicians brings entertainment to everybody.

For those people who enjoy the halftime shows, they know the fun and hard work the Marching Saints have shared together. Beginning in July the band started its competitive season. The early morning practices paid off when the band competed in the area marching band contest held at Concord High School. The contest showed the fine capability of our students. Through the year the band competed in contests including marching and concert bands.

Along with the talent of the instrumentalists there is also the talent and dedication of the auxiliary corps. Under the new direction of Jeannette Albert, the corps consists of eighteen girls making up the flag and rifle squads. The corps performs their routines to the music of the Marching Saints.

Altogether they make up what is our Sr. Joseph's High School band.

The Photo Club under the direction of Mr. Kapsa met each Wednesday in the photo room to discuss new photographic techniques and learn how to use their cameras and develop their own film. The Science Club met periodically throughout the year to plan events such as canoe trips on the St. Joe River and a trip to Toronto, Canada. Under the guidance of Mr. Tom Goff, the Science Club hopes to continue sponsoring the fall canoe trip. A special thanks is due to the Photo Club which often developed and printed film and pictures for the Yearbook staff.

NHS

Under the leadership of Mrs. Derwent, the moderator, and Peter Melsa, the president, this year's National Honor Society inducted the largest number of new members ever. Besides providing the library and tutor services this year. The N.H.S. also sponsored the Square Dance, and the Ice Cream Social, which was the first of a number of appearances from the Senior Band. They also went on a retreat to New Haven, Michigan, and had a picnic at the end of the year to complete the busy but fun year.

Deadline

Everyday at about 2:15, the yearbook office would come to life. Soon after everyone had dutifully checked in with Mrs. Jemieliry, the "work" began. Decorating was a favorite pastime whether it be painting walls, painting flags, putting up posters, stringing tape throughout the room or merely writing on the walls with any available material. During those lulls between deadlines, the staff would keep itself busy by interrupting Fr. Bly's videotape with their popcorn machine and having yardstick fights until all the yardsticks were broken. If there was nothing better to do, the staff could occupy itself by barricading photographers in the darkroom or searching for things that had been put away by everyone's favorite staffer, Greg. Listening to our editors, Tish O'Connell and Mike Trubac, "discuss" the whereabouts of certain pictures and layouts also provided yearbook recreation.

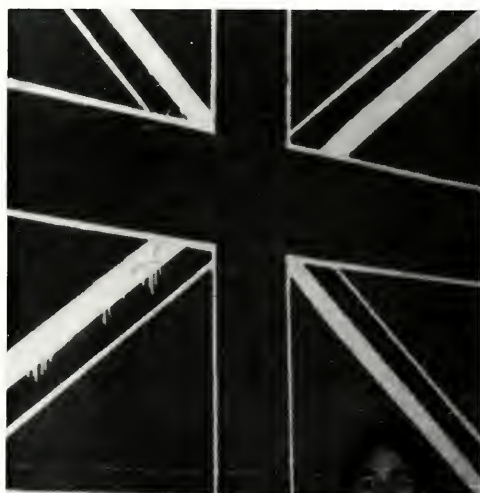

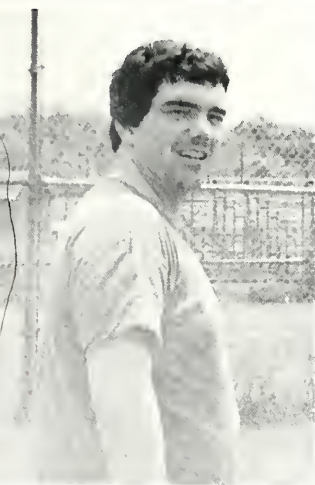

But for all the craziness that took place, a lot of time and hard work went into this book so that now and twenty years from now you have something to look back on. Enjoy —

Go North

The ski club this year did not enjoy good weather in South Bend. So they went NORTH. Under the leadership of Mr. Meyer and planning of Mike Kennedy and John Dhistkul, almost 60 people in five vans traveled to Indian Head Ski Resort, in the upper peninsula of Michigan. The weather was great, the skiing was great and everyone had a great time. The highlight of the trip for the seniors was when Mr. Salada and Mr. Meyer took them into town for an evening of dancing and bowling. Everyone who went regretted having to come back to South Bend.

Liturgy Planning

Working closely with Fr. Rybicki, Sr. Joe's chaplain, the Liturgy Planning Committee prepares the all-school and optional liturgies. For the opening of the school year, the committee helps select music, theme and character for the opening Mass. Several times during the year, they must ready the gym for the optional Holy Day Masses. During the past two years, such services have been enhanced by the additional of a full choir and string ensemble under the direction of Mrs. Steiner and cantor Br. Philip Smith.

"You are the light of the world ... Even so let your light shine before men, in order that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven." Matt. 5:14 & 16

In your years at St. Joe you kept that light, that fire of the Holy Spirit burning in all you did. You found direction in the values taught to you here. You never lost sight of your goals, whether academic or athletic. You put into action what you learned here by serving others in your community.

You found life here.

You are the light of the world. God chose you.
